

Development Event

Smelly Socks & Shiny Stars

Smelly Socks	Votes
Risk Assessments	8
Increasing corpretisation	3
A shift towards a 'performance management' culture. Scouts isn't work.	3
Communication feels corporate "too much like work"	3
Growing gap between HQ and scouting on the ground	2
Increasing amount of paperwork	2
Lack of leaders. Parents think they are paying for a service and don't appreciate we are all volunteers.	2
Collaboration between Groups of the Want to Join lists	0
Some of the programme is a bit school like	0
HQ are power hungry - and dictate too much	0
too much like school work	0

Shiny Stars	Votes
camping	6
The kids	6
Seeing YP grow	4
Seeing young people develop.	3
Larger camps/events	3
Gaining Skills for Life	2
campfires	2
Challenging young people (and watching them meet the challenge)	2
Passing on our experiences	2
Strong District is made up of strong Groups and strong Sections and strong leaders	2
Youngsters	1
The amazing volunteers involved, feel good factor with the community	1
Making new scouting friends	1

meeting new groups	0
seeing faces when kids achieve	0
Accessible to all people. Low cost compared to similar things oyt there	0